

Subordinating Conjunctions

Subordinating Conjunctions

5a. Circle the subordinating conjunction in the sentence below:

The pirate checked the map before he looked for the treasure.

VF

5b. Circle the subordinating conjunction in the sentence below:

The boy didn't wear a coat although it was very cold.

VF

6a. True or false? The underlined word is a subordinating conjunction.

The pirate ship sailed off into the distance.

The pirate was tired although he had just had a nap.

VF

6b. True or false? The underlined word is a subordinating conjunction.

I have just read a book that I really enjoyed.

I was sad when I had finished the book.

VF

7a. Choose the most likely subordinating conjunctions to complete the sentences below:

if after while although

The pirate had a nap _____ the sun shone.

He set off to look for the treasure _____ he had woken up.

VF

7b. Choose the most likely subordinating conjunctions to complete the sentences below:

when while that although

The crowd cheered _____ the goal was scored.

They were happy _____ their team was losing.

VF

8a. Choose the most likely subordinating clause to complete the sentence below:

The children played out although

1. they went to the park.

2. they had a football.

3. it was raining.

VF

8b. Choose the most likely subordinating clause to complete the sentence below:

The parrot watched while

1. it was buried in the sand.

2. the pirate dug for treasure.

3. the sun had set.

VF