

Subordinating Conjunctions

Subordinating Conjunctions

1a. Circle the subordinating conjunction in the sentence below:

The rocket crashed when it landed on the moon.

VF

1b. Circle the subordinating conjunction in the sentence below:

You should wear a scarf if it is cold.

VF

2a. True or false? The underlined word is a subordinating conjunction.

The cat purred because it was being stroked.

VF

2b. True or false? The underlined word is a subordinating conjunction.

The rocket blasted off into space.

VF

3a. Choose a subordinating conjunction to complete the sentence below:

that            when            if

I like to play out _____ it is sunny.

VF

3b. Choose a subordinating conjunction to complete the sentence below:

because            that            if

I couldn't ride my bike _____ it was broken.

VF

4a. Choose the most likely subordinating clause to complete the sentence below:

I asked the teacher for help when

1. I was stuck.

2. she read a book.

3. the book was on the shelf.

VF

4b. Choose the most likely subordinating clause to complete the sentence below:

I have a drink if

1. it was orange juice.

2. I am thirsty.

3. the glass was empty.

VF